

Classical Conversations Scholarship

Home School Legal Defense Association is excited to announce that Classical Conversations is partnering with us to offer scholarships to the National Leaders Conference. Classical Conversations, a support service for homeschooling families, is generously offering $1,000 scholarships to 25 first-time attendees and their families for HSLDA's National Leaders Conference on September 27–30, 2017, in Colorado Springs, Colorado. If you have never attended the National Leaders Conference, we encourage you to apply! (And if you have attended but know of a fellow leader who hasn't, we hope you'll pass this information along!)

The requirements to apply for the scholarship are:

- You must be a first-time attendee (never have attended an HSLDA National Leaders Conference before).
- A letter of verification must be provided to HSLDA stating that (1) the applicant is a current board member or is in another position of leadership in the homeschool organization or group, (2) it would benefit the organization for the applicant to attend the conference, and (3) the applicant needs financial assistance in order to attend. Depending on the governance of your group, the letter may be provided by the president, the CEO, or another person in leadership.
- The recipient of the scholarship must stay at the conference location, Hotel Elegánté.

If you fit the criteria for the scholarship, please contact your group's president or CEO to request the letter of verification, and submit the attached application by July 1, 2017. If your scholarship application is accepted, you will be able to register for the conference at the early-bird price.

We are truly excited and very grateful to Classical Conversations for their sponsorship of the National Leaders Conference through these scholarships. We look forward to having one of our best conferences ever this year, and we know you won't want to miss it!

If you have any questions about your eligibility or the letter of verification, please contact Callan Goodwin or Chloe Powers at 540-338-5600 or conference@hsllda.org.
